

NOTICE TO DEBTORS WITHOUT AN ATTORNEY

To protect individuals who file for bankruptcy, the Office of the U.S. Trustee is responsible for making sure that Bankruptcy Petition Preparers, persons other than attorneys, are following the rules in the bankruptcy laws.

In support of this effort, the Office of the U.S. Trustee has obtained Judgments from the Court which prohibit the following individuals and entities from assisting others in filing cases in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of Michigan. Any individual or entity listed below may not help you prepare your Bankruptcy papers. These individuals and entities may not take any money for helping you.

If you have paid money for help in preparing your bankruptcy papers or for help in any part of your bankruptcy, the person that helped you is required to sign various documents stating exactly what you paid and what services you received.

If you have received assistance, even if you did not put it in your papers or paid for help in preparing your papers, please tell the Trustee at your first meeting of creditors. You should also contact Karen Riggs, paralegal, at karen.riggs@usdoj.gov or (313) 226-7259.
